

Ten Stories of Mafia Murders

Terrible Unpunished Crimes of a Merciless Organization.

By Dr. Ascanio Carreni.

NO. 3—THE SLAYING OF SALVATORE MARCHINNE.

A gang of counterfeiters whose secrets he was believed to have betrayed. One of the letters found in his pocket urged him to return to Italy and thus escape a plot to murder him. The police gathered from this and other clues that Marchinne had been a member of a secret society.

In the face of this sort of crime, said Capt. Kuhn, of the Brooklyn Detective Bureau, "in which the victim's tongue was cut off (presumably for talking too much) it is hard to understand why nearly every Italian who knows anything at all of the victim or his affairs professes utter ignorance when our men go to them. It is undoubtedly the fear of meeting a similar fate that seals their lips. This makes our work extremely hard."

Hard, indeed it was. Not an Italian could be found who would tell the truth of the affair. The Mafia's dreaded hand was over all mouths.

The police questioned, cross-questioned, threatened, pledged protection, arrested four men on suspicion—did, in fact, all that legal force could possibly do. But to no purpose.

The four arrested suspects were held only a few days; then discharged for lack of evidence.

The most plausible—in fact, the only plausible—theory for the murder's cause is this:

Some years earlier an Italian nobleman—the Marquis of Notabartolo—had been murdered near Palermo, supposedly by order of the Mafia society. His slayers were believed to have been spirited out of the country by Marchinne's father and with the help of Salvatore Marchinne himself.

Later, it was said, Salvatore either sought to levy blackmail on these murderers and their friends or else actually betrayed them.

Then, fleeing to America for refuge, he was tracked down by the Mafia and made to pay the dread penalty that awaits "traitors" to the society.

Another more far-fetched theory connected him with a threatened betrayal of the famous "barrel murder" perpetration.

More than a year has passed since Salvatore Marchinne's dismembered body was found. The mystery is no nearer solution to-day than then.

Not far away was a felt hat, in whose crown was the word "Palermo."

The murdered man was about thirty years old, an Italian, rather tall and of heavy build. He was very closely shaven and his face still bore marks of talcum powder. He had apparently just been shaved—and was perhaps still in the barber chair—when he was attacked. Three stiletto stabs in the throat had caused death.

The strangest feature of the affair was not only the mutilating of the face to prevent identification, but the cutting off of the tongue. This, according to old traditions and secret society customs, implied that a traitor had been punished for babbling secrets.

The dead man's watch and money had not been touched, proving that robbery was not the crime's motive.

It has been said that a criminal looks and double-locks nine doors that lead to detection and leaves the tenth door wide open. This old maxim applied to the slayers of the Italian. Though they had slashed the face out of any possibility of recognition they had covered two letters in the pocket of their victim's coat.

These letters proved their owner to have been Salvatore Marchinne, a young Sicilian of good family, who had come to America only three months earlier, and who had conducted a fish business in Union street, Brooklyn.

The Brooklyn police learned that Marchinne had probably been killed by a

Yes, Our Prices on Clothing Are Always Low, But You Cannot Get Better Clothing at Any Price

WE wonder sometimes if there is anybody left in New York who continues to believe that a "department store" clothing store cannot have styles as good as any other clothing store.

Why not—if it is the right kind of a department store?

Why shouldn't we have the best there is? Do you think the men who make clothing are any different from business men in other lines? Of course they sell to those who have the most money and can give the largest orders. And that spells Siegel Cooper Co. plainly enough.

We don't make clothing ourselves. We are free to buy it where we can buy it best. And we do. The results are here for any one to see. No clothing house in the country gives any better style than we—how could it? There is nothing better than the best.

And Yet Our Prices Are Low—Often as Much as $5 Less on Exactly the Same Suit

This is because we treat clothing on a big, sensible basis. We don't have to get the profits that specialty clothing houses must make. and we can buy as well or (usually) much better.

So much for argument. For demonstration see the suits now offered here at $12.50 $15 & $18 and Upward

Every suit is a convincing proof of the claims made above.

S.S.S. CURES CATARRH

During the warm Summer months Catarrh sufferers are not troubled with the effects of the disease, as in Winter. This is true because in the heated season every pore and outlet of the skin is open, and a constant, copious evaporation carries off with it a large percentage of the impurities and poisons which produce Catarrh. But at the first sign of cooler weather the sufferer's comfort ends; the skin does not secrete as freely, a congested condition of the system takes place, and soon every miserable symptom of Catarrh is harassing and causing discomfort to the unfortunate ones.

Catarrh is a deep-seated blood disease, one which no amount of local treatment will ever reach and permanently cure. The beneficial effects of washes, sprays, inhalations, lotions, etc., are only temporary, and when left off the old condition returns because the blood is infected with catarrhal matter and impurities. This inflames and irritates the mucous membrane and produces the symptoms of ringing noises in the head and ears, mucus in the throat, headaches, watery eyes, partial deafness, sore throat, general impairment of the health, etc.

To cure Catarrh permanently the blood must be purified, and the system cleansed of all morbid matters, and at the same time strengthened and built up. Nothing equals S. S. S. for this purpose. It attacks the disease at its head, goes down to the very bottom of the trouble in the blood, and makes a permanent and lasting cure. S. S. S. removes every particle of the catarrhal matter from the circulation, making this vital fluid pure, fresh and healthy. Then the inflamed membranes begin to heal, because they are nourished with pure, health-giving blood, the head is cured, mucus stops dropping back into the throat, every symptom disappears, the constitution is built up and health restored. S. S. S. is the greatest of all blood purifiers and cures Catarrh by driving out the cause from the system. Being made entirely of healthful vegetable ingredients S. S. S. does not contain any habit-forming drugs, which really do not cure Catarrh but often ruin the health; nor will S. S. S. injure the most delicate systems. Book on Catarrh and any medical advice free to all who write.

NOSE STOPPED UP AND INCESSANT COUGH.
Gentlemen—I suffered for a long time with a bad case of Catarrh, and took a great deal of medicine without any benefit. Several doctors told me I could not be cured. I had a continual headache, my cheeks had grown purple, my nose was always stopped up, my breath had a sickening and disgusting odor, and I coughed incessantly. I heard of your S. S. S., and wrote to you. On your recommendation I commenced to use it, and after taking several bottles, I was cured and have never since had the slightest symptom of the disease. I will always be glad to recommend it to other sufferers.
Respectfully, J. E. WESSERMAN.

CURED OF CATARRH.
Dear Sirs:—A few days ago I was contacted by a bad case of Catarrh. It began with a profuse watery discharge from my nose. The matter falling into my throat kept me constantly hacking and spitting, and my breath, too, was foul and offensive. But S. S. S. cured me. I was cured, and I feel well of the Catarrh and I cheerfully recommend it to the public.
When I began taking S. S. S. it was for another disease which the doctor called Tuberculosis of the bone, and since I began the use of your remedy, S. S. S., four of the five tubercles have healed and I feel as well as I ever did in my life.

LOST HIS VOICE.
Goldboro, N. C.
I suffered severely with Catarrh for a number of years and for eighteen months the disease was so bad that I lost my voice in consequence of it. I tried various treatments and doctors and was finally given up to die. I then took S. S. S., according to directions and in due course of time my Catarrh was entirely cured. My voice was restored and I have enjoyed good health ever since.
W. H. GRIFFIN.

CHEERFULLY RECOMMENDS S. S. S.
For the past twenty-five years I have been in the habit of taking a course of S. S. S. every spring as a blood purifier, and have always been well pleased with the results. I had Catarrh for a number of years which was cured by S. S. S. I cheerfully recommend S. S. S. as the best blood purifier on earth. Not only did it cure my Catarrh but I have known of its being used in other cases with entirely satisfactory results.
